
PetroChem Inspection Services Relocates its Corporate Headquarters

Peabody, Massachusetts, May 29, 2008. PetroChem Inspection Services, Inc., a subsidiary of TÜV SÜD America Inc., has relocated its Corporate Headquarters to Pasadena, Texas .

Previously headquartered in Houston, Texas, PetroChem anticipates that the new office location will allow the company to expand as the result of future organic growth. The 21,000 square foot facility includes 11,000 square feet of office space and a 10,000-square-foot workshop area. The move brings PetroChem closer to many of their local customers along with strategically situating the main corporate office within a prime industrial area for the refining and chemical industries.

"PetroChem is pleased to move our corporate and Houston region operations into a new and high-quality business environment. This move should provide an enhanced working environment for our employees and establish PetroChem closer to our customer base in the Pasadena business community," said Bob Burns, President of PetroChem.

PetroChem's headquarters relocated to the new location effective May 29, 2008.
